CURRENT NOTES

A ship-master at Honolulu reports that, during a recent visit of his vessel at Jarvis Island, a "leopard shark," so called because its skin is covered with dark spots, was washed ashore, which measured twenty six feet in length. The distance between the eyes of this monster he asserts, was four feet, and the width of the jaws nearly three feet

The widow of Hon Thomas D Arcy McGee died suddenly in Montreal recently One of her two daughters returned from a party at a late hour, and entering her room found her on her knees quite dead, with a prayer book in her hand, she having evidently expired while engaged in her devotions She was about forty six years of age

Mrs Victoria C Woodhull, female broker and joint editor of Woodhull & Claflin's Weekly, announces herself as a candidate for the Presidency of the United States, under the auspices of the "Cosmo political party" Mrs Woodhull's nomination is, however, "subject to the ratification of the National Convention of the Cosmo political party"

The Young Democracy of Scott county, Kentucky, are on the war path, Ku Kluxing inoffensive negroes One day last week, says the Indianapolis Journal, a select party of these gentle men had a grand negro hunt, killing three and wounding three more The colored men had the impudence to defend themselves, and one of the huntsmen was killed

The Louisville Courier Journal reminds the Democratic party that it is responsible for law and order in Kentucky, and that it cannot afford to carry even the appearance of complicity with the villainy that has recently disgraced the very neighborhood of the State capital And it tells the Democrats that unless they set their house in order they will have no right to complain of Federal interference, and will not be able to prevent it.

In Galveston, Texas there are three men named Jones who are constantly getting into trouble on each other's account Week before last one of them was assaulted in the street for writing an abusive article he had never seen A few days before the wrong Jones was accused of deserting his second wife, though he had never been married The three Joneses threaten, after the Milesian fashion, to exterminate each other in order to establish their identity.

What Ought the Germans to Do

GERMANY MUST HAVE SECURITY—THE WAR FORCED ON HER—FRANCE MUST TAKE HER OWN MEDICINE

[From the New York Times]

One would think, from the outcry of a portion of the British and American press about the Germans continuing the war with the French for the sake of a little strip of territory and a money indemnity, that no nation ever before was actuated by such greedy and ambitious motives We hear from the London Spectator that the justifiable anger of the German race at the unprovoked attack of Napoleon upon them is converted into a wicked lust for territory From the World and kindred organs here, we hear of "the ambition," the "greed," the pride and bloodthirsty cruelty of King William's councilors in prolonging a terrible war against an unfortunate people from base and selfish motives The same organs, too both in England and America, reason about the war much as the Tory press of Great Britain did in regard to our civil war. The Times and the London Post, and other journals, then could hardly find words of pious condemnation lofty and severe enough to express their disapproval of the bloody and fratricidal spirit of the North, in continuing so devastating a war The popular view at English breakfast tables at that period of American character, was that it had become depraved by war, and thirsted for blood and slaughter While we were tearfully sending forth our sons and brothers to die for their country, we were supposed to be continuing a useless slaughter merely from a brutal love of sensation, and from a sinful ambition The tone of the London Spectator—from which better things were to be expected—is now precisely similar in regard to the spirit and sacrifices of the Germans, and the uselessness of the war The French are written of, as to their ultimate chances, precisely as the Confederates were by the British Tory press.

Now what would these writers have the Germans do? Are they to pack up their siege-trains and break up their camps, and, after having lost a couple of hundred thousand of the best youth of Germany, to ignominiously and penitentially retreat to the Rhine, with a million of enraged Frenchmen besetting their line of march?

After being suddenly attacked, under one of the most ridiculous pretexts ever avowed in modern diplomacy, and, contrary to the expectation of the world, having temporarily beaten down their adversary, with a loss to themselves in men and treasure which the gains of a half century to come will not replace—are they meekly to say, "We have hurt each other enough! Now let us be quits, and leave things just as they are"? Any nation, with the smallest remnant of manhood, after such an unprovoked war and such terrible losses, would cast out their leaders to perpetual disgrace if they counseled such a course Neither Frederick William nor Bismarck could hold their places a day in Germany if they carried it out. The Germans naturally demand satisfaction for the future some pledge that an unprovoked assault will not be repeated, and some indemnity for the past What, exactly, this pledge or this indemnity shall be neither the King nor Bismarck has yet indicated Whether it must be all of Alsace and Lorraine, or only a portion, or whether it will be in money or land, no mortal yet knows The German Minister is tolerably sharp, and is not likely to avow before a bargain what he will take If he has indicated anything, we may be sure he will, like any other good negotiator, accept a good deal less than he has proclaimed

And if France should lose a strip of her territory, why should it be thought so terrible a calamity to her, or the gaining of it so great a sin in Germany? France has inflicted such losses a hundred times in her history upon others She won this very territory from Germany by just such means as Germany will now win it from her There is no nation in Europe that has not built up its possessions by successful wars The British Empire is cemented by blood, and its best provinces have been won by fire and sword Germany is not a country of philanthropists and saints The average German, like the average Englishman if he has fought a bloody battle, desires to wrest a full indemnity from his enemy With all his philosophy and Christianity, he has not yet arrived at the position to which apparently, the Spectator and World would affectionately lead him, where, having risked life and property to vanquish a formidable assailant he humanely lets him go, and furnishes him with arms to attack again The obstacle to peace is now with the French As M Guizot has lately so powerfully demonstrated they have no popular government.

There are dictators indeed and a form of a republic, but no one knows what the will of the people is—whether it wants peace or war M Gambetta will not allow a National Assembly to be called The Prussians have no government to treat with, and if they should conclude a treaty with Gen Trochu or M Gambetta, the future Assembly might reverse it all within a month If the present dictators were not afraid that a National Assembly would overthrow them, they would undoubtedly long ere this have called one and concluded a peace.

[DISPATCHED TO THE OREGONIAN]

EASTERN DATES TO FEBRUARY 7.

Turbulent Demonstrations at Paris.

LONDON, Feb 7—The Telegraph has the following from Paris, February [illegible] The meetings held are becoming more demonstrative The speakers demand the arrest and trial of those who surrendered the city The Liberal Republican Committee has declared that the government of the 4th of September should be arraigned by the National Assembly to render an account of the conduct of the defense of Paris and give reasons for agreeing to an armistice The committee also declared that no treaty ratifying the armistice should be signed, and that Paris should continue the defense and refuse to capitulate

At a meeting in the Salon de Riene, Blanch, an orator, declared that France demanded Robespierre, and that the guillotine alone could save the country This sentiment was received with enthusiasm by the audience.

Deputies who favor a continuance of the war were applauded at all meetings.

Trochu has declined the candidacy for the Assembly

The following are among the candidates of the Republican Alliance, Central Republican, Union and International Workmen's Association Louis Blanc, Victor Hugo, G Rouo, Ryat, Henne, Rochefort and M Bressant editor of Le Combat

Flour will be exhausted on Saturday, and on Sunday Paris will be without bread

The Bank of France advances two hundred million francs to pay the city's war contribution The city will issue bonds to repay the loan

General Ducrot refuses to stand as a candidate for the National Assembly.

Gambetta Resigns

LONDON, Feb 7—The resignation of Gambetta is believed to indicate the abandonment of hopes of a republic and makes the restoration of the Empire certain

From Bordeaux

BORDEAUX, Feb 7—Minister Etienne Argo has issued a circular which maintains the validity of decrees, and making members of families once regnant and imperial office holders, ineligible to the National Assembly The circular adds that the decree of exclusion extends to all members of the Bonaparte family

The War Indemnity

LONDON, Feb 7—The Echo du [illegible] has a special dispatch from Berlin saying that contributions already exacted by German commanders will be deducted from the amount of war indemnity, also, value of railroads in Alsace and Lorraine

Re-organization of the Austrian Cabinet

VIENNA, Feb 7 An Imperial autograph relieves Count Potocko and his colleagues of their ministerial functions and appoints Hohenwart Minister of the Interior, with authority to form a new Cabinet Other decrees follow appointing Holtzthern Minister of Finance, Schafli Minister of Commerce, Terrek Minister of Public Works, and Scool Minister of War

EASTERN STATES.

The Railroad Disaster.

NEW YORK, Feb 7—The list of killed by the Hudson river railroad accident now foots up fifteen passengers and five employees

The Fishery Question

MONTREAL, Feb 7—Well informed Canadian papers say the American reports from Washington respecting the fishery question are not well contradicting

The Republican Party

Vice President Colfax, in his article "The Future of the Republican Party," asserts that the party has not lost its hold upon the affections of the people nor will it in 1872 The "results" of the late Democratic triumphs in the South—midnight assassinations, fresh organizations, etc —will certainly conduce to strengthen the Republicans in that section Among other of these "results," Mr. Colfax enumerates the election (in North Carolina) of former rebels to offices of Senator, Governor and so on He closes as follows

What preserves the Republic from the rule of the Democratic party, which contains these elements within it, is the continued power of the Republican party And it is because the voting masses of the patriotic organization, who, without the lead of politicians, created it, realize that it was a reform party at its birth, and has been a reform party during all its existence, and has carried through more vital reforms than all other parties, in our century of national life and can elaborate and consummate all needed reforms in the future as their necessity becomes apparent, that they intend to win another triumph for it and its standard bearers in 1872 However, the President its successful candidate in 1868, may be criticised or attacked, I believe him stronger with the people at large than he was when thus chosen, Then there were fears with some, that, though a Republican, he might not be in its advanced line Who fears it now? Some doubted whether, with a life spent in armies and all his fame won there, he might not be too quick in pushing international questions to a warlike sentiment Let his stand in regard to Cuban intervention, despite his personal sympathies with that struggling people prove how these doubts have been dispelled. * * * General Grant (with some one of the many prominent Republicans east and south, whom all confide in and will delight to honor associated with him) will, I sincerely believe, lead the Republican phalanx, as he has so often led those under his banner, to a signal and auspicious victory. And it will be a victory that will give stability and rest to the country by ending forever, as it will, all hopes of a Democratic reaction against the results of the war as embodied in our constitution and laws

How they do it in Indiana

The Indiana Senate is the scene of one of the most singular complications that ever took place in American Politics On the first day of the session one or two of the Republican members being absent, and the members elect being politically tied the Democrats took the opportunity to object to Mr Burson a Republican Senator elect who presented credentials in entirely regular form The Lieutenant Governor declared that Burson must be sworn, but an appeal was taken and the temporary Democratic majority carried it against the decision of the Chair When the absentee Republicans tardily arrived, they found themselves in a minority The Lieutenant Governor would not recognize the validity of the vote of the Senate refusing the oath of office to Mr Burson and that gentleman was sworn in Ever since the vote referred to, the majority of the Senate have refused him participation in the votes of the body but Governor Cumback has with equal persistency recognized his rights as a member The process which is repeated several times a day, is something as follows The yeas and nays are called and Mr Burson's name is omitted A Republican member rises and calls the attention of the Chair to the fact of the omission, and Gov Cumback directs the Secretary to call Mr Burson's name Thereupon another member a Democrat, takes the floor and raises the point of order that Mr Burson is not a member of the Senate The Chair overrules the point, but on an appeal the Democrats overrule the Chair, and Mr Burson's name is not called The Secretary was chosen by the "revolutionary majority" as the Democrats are not inappropriately styled, and is of course willing to obey them

(This outrage is a strictly "Democratic proceeding" It is the way that party always always acts when it has a chance And yet some Republicans think it not right to meet it with its own weapons !)

CURRENT NOTES.

The roll of honor contains the record of over 330,000 graves of soldiers of the Union, and comprises twenty five volumes The work will be completed in two volumes.

Congress has been so lavish in its donations of bronzed ordnance for soldiers' monuments that the Secretary of War has found it necessary to send in a communication suggesting that, as these guns are quite valuable, no more appropriations of them be made

The order of the "Knights of Pythias," which is becoming so widely spread and prosperous, originated during the war as a bond of union among army officers Founded in the famous friendship of Damon and Pythias, it has since been extended to the people, its work and intent being similar to that of the Masonic Order

INDUSTRIAL INTERESTS PARALYZED [illegible] FAMINE

As to the apprehension [illegible] necessaries of life, it [illegible] from the same cause that threatens [illegible] the industrial interests of [illegible] difficulties of [illegible] plains of Hungary [illegible] the prolific States of [illegible] west and to the Atlantic States [illegible] the inexhaustible source [illegible] cattle pork and [illegible] tes are regularly [illegible] quantities [illegible] a good one [illegible] of her [illegible] of the [illegible] the [illegible] The trans[illegible] the Austrian [illegible] sumed extraordinary [illegible] the political [illegible] last winter [illegible] the breaking out of hostilities the [illegible] of the German armies suddenly [illegible] additions to the purchases of food for export from Hungary, and a great increase of the freighting business of the railways mentioned At no time was there ever so much of their rolling stock employed in this traffic as during the fall months This kind of freight is usually carried from the Lower Danube to different parts of Germany without breaking bulk In ordinary times the Austrian freight cars always went straight back, after unloading, to the starting points Now, for the convenience of the military authorities, they have been going since August into France to the several German bases of supply Arrived there, instead of being returned after being emptied, they were retained and used for stocking the French railways in German possession The German railways, too, in order to fill the gaps made in their rolling stock by the retention of cars in France, retained a large surplus of them for their own use instead of directing back to their owners To what extent this system has been carried on may be inferred from the fact that the single Austrian line extending from Vienna to the Bavarian frontier missed on the first of the present month no less than three thousand eight hundred and sixty six freight cars which were retained in Germany. As this constantly increasing loss of rolling stock gradually rendered the Austrian railways unable to carry on even the ordinary home traffic, their several administrations were compelled to resort to the extreme measure of suspending their entire freighting business with Germany until at least a portion of their cars should be recovered Orders to this effect were issued and have been enforced since December 1st, As the surplus products of Hungary are absolutely needed not only to feed the German armies, but to prevent a famine in Germany, their entire cutting off has naturally produced a good deal of consternation in Germany A meeting of the managers of railways in central and western Germany was held a few days since to concert measures to avert calamitous results, and it was voted to place a few thousand of their freight cars at the disposal of the Austrian railways But it remains to be seen, in view of the constant demand on their rolling stock for military purposes, whether the railroads in question will be able to carry out this measure of relief Unless they succeed, very trying times are certainly in store for Germany

A very penurious lady was so affected by a charity sermon on a recent occasion as to borrow a dollar from her neighbor and put it in her own pocket

How to Keep Accounts

In the following article the New York Tribune has some humorous allusions to the doings of that noted character Jim Fisk

The Daily Oregonian.

THURSDAY MORNING FEBRUARY 9 1871

Still in the Dark

An Oregon paper that croaks about the poverty of our State and with a lunacy that is as pitiable as it is unfortunate declares that the State now contains less wealth than it had ten years ago—the decrease and decay being attributable to the burdens of Federal taxation—thinks it an injury that there are a few United States securities among us In a doleful article on the alleged decay of wealth and prosperity the paper alluded to says We have probably over one million dollars in U S bonds in this State which are free from the Assessor as one of the luxuries of Radical rule

Now we cannot tell what amount of Government securities there is in Oregon, but we do know that if our people had ten times as many as they have the State would be greatly better off The bonds represent wealth and are a security on which active working capital could be based for the development of the country

But the point is that they are exempt from taxation Well, were not Government securities always exempt? Did the Democratic party in the course of its long lease of power ever tax them? Never During Buchanan's administration the outstanding securities of the Government amounted to nearly one hundred million dollars Were they taxed? Not at all It appears, then, that their being "free from the assessor" is not exclusively "one of the luxuries of Radical rule" It was also one of the "luxuries" of Democratic times

Will some member of the Democratic party in this State, who considers it as grievous that United States bonds are exempt from taxation, inform the public through the OREGONIAN (we tender our columns for the purpose) whether the Democratic party, when in power, ever subjected the bonds issued by the Federal Government to a tax? Did any party that ever administered this Government tax National bonds? Was it done under the administrations of Washington, Jefferson, Jackson, Polk, Buchanan, or any other President? Will the Oregon City Enterprise furnish dates and other particulars?

It seems extremely hard for some people to learn that a Government cannot be supported by taxing its own credit any more than a man can lift himself over a fence by his waistband Of course if it taxes its debts it attacks and impairs its ability to borrow money, and thus increases the rate of interest far more than all it can get back from its creditors in the shape of taxes This matter has been discussed again and again, but it seems that the average Democratic mind never can be opened to any light upon it

A San Francisco journal says that "in the matter of the Alabama claims, England has virtually acknowledged her wrong doing to the United States, by adopting an entirely different course with respect to Prussia and France Had the British Government put forth half the energy to preserve neutrality during our war that it has done to maintain amicable relations with Prussia, there would have been no Alabama nor Florida to burn, sink and destroy our merchant marine Whether intentionally or not, England has admitted, before the whole world, the injustice of her course during our domestic difficulties It is passing strange that the two great commercial nations of the earth, enjoying the most liberal forms of Government, possessing the greatest amount of human liberty, speaking the same language each the representative of progress, and by nature fitted to be the closest allies should appear unwilling to settle amicably and promptly any question which might possibly cause hot blood between them There is more manliness in frankly acknowledging error and making prompt reparation than in dogged insistance and stiff-necked obstinacy England and the United States, conjointly, can do more for the cause of human progress than all the rest of the world together, and whatever creates dissension between them, or promotes jealous hostile or bitter feeling is cause for universal regret The sooner that the Alabama claims the fisheries, and the San Juan boundary line question are settled, the better it will be for all interests in both countries"

A Philadelphia paper of the 21st January announces that a report is current that the Pennsylvania Railroad Company has obtained a controling interest in the stock of the Union Pacific Railroad Company partly by purchase in the open market, and partly through private negotiations, and that this is one reason of the great rise in all the securities of the Company This confirms a rumor we mentioned a few days ago to the effect that the Pennsylvania Central was likely to beat Vanderbilt in getting possession of the Union Pacific

The "organ" yesterday had not a word about the departure of Senator Kelly for Washington Doubtless it took it for granted that "nobody knows and nobody cares" But it might have uttered one regretful word as the Democratic Senator started for the National Capitol, to drop into oblivion He has gone, and his bones (politically speaking) may haply be stumbled on one day, as they lie bleaching on the drear sands of neglect and forgetfulness But otherwise, there is no probability that he will ever be heard of more

A writer in the San Francisco Commercial Herald argues that the manufacture of beet sugar in California will not pay and submits an elaborate statement with estimates in detail, to fortify his position According to his figures the cost of working up six thousand tons of beets (including cost of beets) would be $121 280 while the sugar produced would be worth but $67 200 The editor of the Commercial Herald gives a quasi endorsement to his figures, and seriously doubts whether the business can yet be made to pay

THE FEMALE SQUIRE—A Wyoming paper published the following editorial paragraph

Mrs. Justice Esther Morris has retired from the duties of her office and turned over books to Justice Stillman Mrs Morris has filled the position with great credit to herself, and retires with the good opinion of all with whom she has transacted any official business

Copying this, the editor of the Laramie Sentinel says "While acting Governor of Wyoming we had the honor to commission the lady aforesaid as Justice of the Peace for Sweetwater county Fogies and conservatives denounced, vilified petitioned against, swore at and complained of us for the action in question Nearly a year however, of judicial duty was passed and Mrs Morris has demonstrated beyond question the capacity of herself and sex to gracefully and successfully wear the judicial ermine

We trust that our fogyish neighbors are satisfied and only regret that the people of Sweetwater county had not the good sense and judgment to nominate and elect her for the ensuing term We advise the ladies to vote with the party which is willing to recognize their claims no matter what its name may be"

POLITICAL ITEMS

The Springfield (Mass) Republican says that only two Senators from Massachusetts have served longer than Henry Wilson—Charles Sumner now completing his twentieth official year, and Daniel Webster who served nearly nineteen years

A Mississippi paper of late date repeats the threadbare story about the number of men engaged on either side in the late "Democratic rebellion" drawing conclusions of course unfavorable to the Union troops This editor, and all others like him who seek solace in this way, should bear in mind that it was not rebels in arms alone who prolonged the war for four years, but the army of rebels without arms at the backs of Union soldiers The unarmed Democracy of the North did more for the "lost cause" than all the men in arms in their front

Gov Hoffman fails to meet the advanced ideas of at least one earnest Democratic journal, the New Haven Lever This paper is disgusted because he does nothing but "protest" against the interference of the Federal Government in the election of Congressmen In fact the Lever considers it a "sickening sight" to see a Governor of a sovereign State contenting himself with any thing less than forcible resistance to such an outrage It says "This has got to be the fashion in these cowardly times It is rather cheap rations upon which to feed and nourish good soldiers of liberty It is worse than water gruel for giants

The results of the new census in New York city would be laughable if they were not mournful, as revealing a lower deep of rascality in Democratic politicians than had been heretofore suspected The first enumeration shows a startling discrepancy between the actual population and that which voted the Democratic ticket, and it was denounced as unfair by the Mayor and a new count demanded Complete returns from the 10th, 11th, 13th and 17th wards, so far as affording any basis for the immense number of Democratic voters, show a falling off from the previous count of 5 553, and the Tammany men find it still more difficult to reconcile their vote to the population than formerly

At the banquet given on the occasion of the election of Frank Blair to the Senate, Governor Brown (who was elected as a bolter) said It is perfectly understood that the distinguished gentleman whom you have elected to one of the highest offices in the land, to represent Missouri in the United States Senate, and myself, occupy relatively distinct positions He is a member of the Democratic party, while I am enrolled among the Republican party [Cheers] I desire to say that whilst the differences between parties are shading down, and while some of my Republican friends find it difficult to determine exactly where they stand [applause and laughter] I intend to go up on the high ground on the other side, and my friend, Mr Blair, will go on the high ground on the opposite, where he can view his whole party

THE TERRITORIES.

The Territory of Arizona is trying to contract with California to take care of her insane.

A new postoffice called Whitman has been established in Walla Walla county, W T

The amount of land disposed of at the Olympia Land Office during the month of January was 15 952 acres

The twenty five mile contract on the Northern Pacific road extends from Kalama nearly to the forks of the Cowlitz

Wheat is now selling at Walla Walla at 75 cents per bushel, and is eagerly sought after. It is believed that the price will go up further

The Captain of the North German ship Galatea, now loading at Puget Sound, has received a telegram dated Hamburg, January 30th, announcing that a three weeks armistice by sea and land had been proclaimed

Alluding to the appointment of Geo L Woods as Governor of Utah, a Boise paper says there does not seem to have been much in the gleeful accounts of his snubbing by the President, about which the squib writers made so merry

The schooner Nanaimo Packet, Capt Stevens, which left Nanaimo about three weeks ago, bound for Port Townsend, has been lost off one of the islands in the Haro Strait—all hands saved She was laden with furs, and the captain was wanted on a charge of selling liquor to British Columbia Indians In attempting to make his escape, the vessel would seem to have been lost

The Boise Statesman argues that "if the people and Congress are wise, they will repeal the organic acts of Montana, Idaho and Utah territories, add them and a portion of eastern Oregon to Nevada, and make one mighty Rocky Mountain sage brush, bunch grass, horn silver and virgin gold State out of it There is, and probably will be for the next fifty years, about enough population in it to make a powerful State And this argument would also afford the readiest solution of the Mormon question It would put them under a people who know how to manage them and who would do it"

FOREIGN NOTES

It is believed at London, says a New York dispatch, that the Emperor Napoleon will be restored to power that the Emperor William and Bismarck have been determined on this ever since Sedan, and that they are resolved that France shall not be a Republic under any circumstances

On the 19th January, Mr Otway, British Under Secretary for Foreign Affairs, delivered an address before his constituents at Chatham, in which he reviewed the foreign policy of England, and in the course of his remarks expressed the belief that the new Minister of the United States, Mr Schenck, would settle the American question England, said Mr Otway, is averse to the quarrel, and any ministerial policy would be cowardly that would refuse to renew negotiations looking to a peaceful settlement

An American writing from Paris about two weeks before the capitulation, said The fact is well established that Gen. Trochu is a complete failure, and that if he were out of the way there would be some hope of saving France He has been so flattered for his supposed greatness that he believes his own safety paramount to that of Paris and has talked of leaving Paris in a balloon to avoid capture when the city falls When urged not to do so, and told that the French people would regard such an act as cowardice he replied that his capture would be the ruin of France, and by his safety alone could the people expect to succeed in driving the Germans from the soil of France

The Coinage Tax

When the resolution to continue the coinage tax or mint charges was before the Senate a short time ago Senator Sherman of Ohio strongly favored it He was followed by Senator Corbett in opposition, from whose remarks we extract the following

Mr Corbett I think the Senator from Ohio has proved, from his own demonstration, that the coinage of gold in this country will prevent it going abroad, and therefore will retain the coin in this country As I understand this subject it is the desire of this country to retain the gold in it to make the coin as dear for shipment abroad as possible, thus making it an object to ship abroad wheat, cotton, and other products of our country and keep the gold at home in order that we may once more return to specie payments When you place the alloy in the gold and coin it you make it so much less desirable to send it abroad. If you send refined bars abroad without this alloy of course it is cheaper and therefore you ship your gold abroad instead of wheat and cotton I think from the argument of the Senator from Ohio himself it is very clear that it is for the interest of this Government to retain the gold here and to ship abroad other products The charge of three-tenths of one per cent is not a matter of such great importance to the miner of California or of the Pacific coast It is not upon that ground that I desire the abolition of this coinage charge I would place it upon the ground of advantage to the United States Government in once more returning to specie payments, to a sound basis which we all so much admire It is to that point which we have endeavored to legislate The abolition of this charge is one of the very things that will tend to a return to specie payments It seems to me that this is a matter in which every State in the Union is interested We do not ask that the Pacific coast shall be relieved from this paltry sum of $100,000 We ask in the national interest that the people be relieved from the charge upon coinage in order that the coin may be retained in the country That is the point What is this small charge of $100 000 to the Pacific coast? It is not upon that ground that we place our opposition to it I think it is very conclusively proved from the remarks of the Senator from Ohio himself, that it would be of great advantage to this country to relieve it from this coinage charge

What has been the result in England of abolishing the coinage charge altogether? The result is that all the bullion is flowing to England where it can be coined without charge, and where it will remain, thus placing their currency upon a sound basis We wish to make this country the moneyed center of the world, and if we can reduce the coinage charge and retain the coin in our own country, rather than send it abroad, it will tend more or less to that result. The coinage charge in France, the Senator says, is about one-fourth of one per cent, of course bullion to a great extent has flown to France, but England is the great center where the bullion flows

I hope that the amendment reported by the Committee on Finance will not be adopted I think this bill was originally prepared and sent to the Senate with a view that it might be to the interest of this country to abolish the coinage charge thereby retaining the bullion in the country, putting our own stamp upon it, putting our own alloy in the coin, and making it dearer to be shipped abroad By these means it will be retained here For these reasons I hope the amendment will not be adopted

SILVER DISCOVERY AT LAKE SUPERIOR—A Chicago correspondent of the New York Times is responsible for the following tough story

We are in danger of a silver excitement in this section on the opening of navigation in the spring Some time ago an account was published of the purchase of Silver Island, on the north shore of Lake Superior, by a Detroit company. The island is a low one, and when the lake is rough it is swept by the waves The company erected a wall and coffer dam, but after they had taken out eighty tons of ore the dam gave way This ore when smelted, was found to be exceedingly rich—yielding $1,000 to the ton I have seen a gentleman who has just returned from that region, where he has been exploring and the tales he tells of the exceeding abundance and richness of the silver-bearing rock on the northern shores of the lake are marvellous The whole region is represented as argentiferous He gave an account of one vein on the Amethyst river, which is four feet wide and projects in some places as much as six feet from the surrounding rock, it being much harder This vein, it is represented, has been traced for miles, and lost in the waters of Thunder Bay A shaft has been sunk ten feet into the vein, and, to all appearances, one half of the "rock" is pure silver It is composed of argentiferous galena, pure silver, sulphate of silver, and specimens as sayed are reported to have produced over $5000 to the ton If these facts are verified, we may expect a stampede in that direction, for these mines present a more powerful attraction than those of the Western mountains

THIRD LECTURE OF THE COURSE.

BY REV A L LINDSLEY, D D

Subject—"Our Mother Tongue"

The language of a nation is the accumulation of the experience the wisdom and the genius of a nation "The heart of a people is its Mother Tongue and it is only by learning that Mother Tongue that you can know the heart It is only while listening to the "thoughts that breathe and the words that burn" from the lips of her poets and her orators, her historians and her dramatists that you can feel that heart beating responsive to your own Thus we have an argument of great power in favor of studying one's own Language and therefore, to the American the study of the English Language is deeply interesting and important, not only for its great intrinsic merits but also for its uses and applications to the great purposes of life

Its History its present structure and elements; its Contents the literature of ages its Speech the Mother Tongue of increasing millions Its copiousness and flexibility its adaptedness and generosity qualify it for wider diffusion and the people who fondly call it Mother Tongue is the most free intelligent and enterprising among the nations What then shall be its destiny? It is a sacred trust to be shielded from abuse and transmitted intact and pure

Old Saxon words, old Saxon words!
Your spell are round us thrown
Ye haunt our daily paths and dreams
With music all your own;
Each one in its own power a host,
The fond remembrance brings
The earliest brightest aspect back
Of life's familiar things."

Dr Lindsley takes a high rank as a ministerial orator His Sabbath evening lectures are attracting a large and rapidly increasing audience He has a rich, well modulated voice and his style of eloquence is forcible, convincing and often fervid and impassioned, abounding in illustration and apt and ornament—every expression being a fine specimen of Our Mother Tongue

THURSDAY MORNING, FEBRUARY 9, 1871.

CITY.

PASSENGERS FOR CALIFORNIA.—The following is the passenger list per steamship Ajax for San Francisco: Mrs E N Cook, P Wasserman, Col J McCraken, Jas Hoyt and wife, P M Eder, E C Davis, H Rosenfeldt, Otey Bradford and friend, Eugene Semple and wife, Col J K Kelly, C S King, Rev E C Anderson, Mrs G S Clark N Waldman, M B Almey, G S Philbrick, H Sawyer, J A Jackson, J M Coleman, Z M Davis and wife, J S Maxley, J M Gilman, J Loeunburg, R E Knapp, Miss P Clark, J Mayer, Sam Davis, J D Wells, E Frank, Lieut J Sanburn, wife and 2 children, Miss Ellen Miller, C B Gillihan, Miss S Miller, Mrs M C West, Capt Wm Turnbull, J Bloom, Mrs S S Pollock and child, J Calder, L D Parker, J Williams, Miss Anna Road, A V Cadwell, Wells, Fargo & Co's Messenger, and 10 in the steerage.

ARRIVAL OF THE LIVE YANKEE.—The bark Live Yankee, J. C. Creary, master, arrived yesterday morning from San Francisco. She sailed January 19th, and arrived off the Columbia river on the 24th, and for want of a pilot stood off and on for nearly two weeks. The following is her manifest and list of consignees: To E J Northrup & Co, 632 pkgs mdse; E Lowenstein & Co, 57; Hodge, Calef & Co, 101; Snow & Roos, 18; J West & Co, 294; C H Woodard & Co, 14; L White & Co, 12; T Montaith, 2; Thos Charman, Oregon City, 78; Loveridge, Wadhams & Co, 493 H Lutsheimer, 5; O Ericson, 5; McCraken, Merrill & Co, 4,330, Smith & Davis, 17; Henry Failing, 335; Friedman & Co, 5; Everding & Beebe, 160; Weatherford & Co, 31; Allen & Lewis, 751, J K Gill, 3; A B Richardson, 728; S J McCormick, 12; J W Cook, 15; C S Parker, Astoria, 40; Wm Young, 253; Walter Bros, 45.

HOTEL RENOVATION.—Messrs. Quimby & Perkins have lately re-leased the American Exchange Hotel for a term of three years, and they have just commenced a thorough renovation of the entire interior of the house. The walls of rooms are being plastered and papered anew, and all woodwork is being repainted. New carpets and oil cloths are to be put down, and there are to be new furniture and furnishings throughout. Having now the control of the house for a period long enough to warrant the investment, the proprietors intend to fit it up in first-class style and to run it on that grade every day in the week for three years. They are popular landlords, and there is no doubt but they will win.

CIRCUIT COURT DOCKET.—The docket for the February term of the circuit court has been pretty much made up, to date, by the Clerk. It con[illegible] nearly two hundred cases, the greater part [illegible] which are pending from the previ[illegible] [illegible] in which the Lownsdale heirs [illegible] for the purpose merely of quieting [illegible]. The publication of the docket would be, [illegible] uninteresting and unimportant to our readers and unless there appear some better reason for publishing it than to merely fill a column (with lumber) we shall observe the usual [illegible] by breaking it.

MASONIC GRAND LODGE SEAL.—A new seal [illegible] Grand Lodge A. F. and A. M. of Oregon, [illegible] been received by the Grand Secretary, J. Hurford from a design of his own. The seal [illegible] the all seeing eye above the [illegible] which are the words, "In the Lord is our Trust" [illegible] scroll. In the center [illegible] the altar with the Bible opened, each side of which is a column and below three steps and the date of the Grand Lodge, "instituted September 15th A L 5851." The margin at the top presents the square and compass.

[illegible].—Since the ordinance was passed providing that the city prisoners may be worked at the demand of the Chief Engineer, that officer has had several gangs of them employed in cleaning out the engine houses, filling and putting them in repair etc. This is as it should be. The city is hereby saved the expense of some scavenger work, and the employment of prisoners will be likely to deter them from seeking private board at the public expense.

[illegible] MOSS IN ENGLAND.—Mr. O. S. Phelps yesterday handed us a letter from Plymouth, England, in which the writer acknowledges the receipt of Oregon papers and some specimens of moss sent by Mr Phelps The lady to whom they were sent says of the mosses: "I have potted them and they are growing beautifully. I doubt if any one in town beside me can boast of having moss from far away Oregon. I prize them very much

FREIGHT FOR SAN FRANCISCO.—The steamship [illegible] cleared yesterday with the following manifest of cargo for San Francisco: 2,363 bxs apples, 32 cs bacon 109 hf bbls dried apples, 3,667 sks [illegible] and [illegible] sks flour 9 bales and 4 cs woolen goods [illegible] sks wheat, 44 pkgs China mdse 842 sks bran 400 sks flax seed, 107 sks potatoes 17 bales wool and 15 bxs eggs.

A NEW STEAMER [illegible].—The O. S. N. Co. on Tuesday began at the Boneyard the construction of a new steamboat to run between Portland and Astoria The boat is to be 175 feet long, 28 feet beam and 7 feet depth of hold with a tonnage capacity of 600 tons She is to be built with full cabin elegant finish and to have machinery of sufficient power to make her very fast.

ON A NEW ROUTE.—The steamer Vancouver is now running daily trips on the route between [illegible] and Kalama. She will leave this city at [illegible] o'clock P. M. each day, and Kalama [illegible] each morning, making landings at the way points.

[illegible]. The man Bertrand who a couple of years since killed Heier in this city, was himself [illegible] another man in Arizona. Again [illegible] fulfilled, "Whoso sheddeth man's blood by man shall his blood be shed."

[illegible] THE RIVER.—The bark Stella, [illegible] from San Francisco to this port to load wheat for Rio, arrived in the Columbia river Tuesday morning, and will be towed up to day by the [illegible].

SUNDAY BOAT TRIAL.—It is announced that the lap streak race-boat Neptune will be out on the river next Sunday for trial by a crew of practised oarsmen. This will be a novelty in these waters.

MORE CATTLE FOR EASTERN OREGON.—Another large drove of young cattle was crowded on the O. S. N. Co's wharf yesterday, to be taken up the Columbia river by the steamer to-day.

THE COURTS.

WEDNESDAY, Feb. 8, 1871.

A reduction of $300 was ordered upon the assessment of T. C. Trengove, except as to State tax.

Petition of E. J. Taylor and others for a county road from a point near Joseph Kiblings ferry on the Sandy river, to run easterly up the valley of the Columbia, to the farm of Joseph Latourelle in Multnomah county, A. COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS.

REGULAR MEETING, FEBRUARY 8, 1871.

Regular weekly meeting of the Common Council.

Present—Mayor Goldsmith in the Chair, Messrs. Besser, Breck, Congle, Cree, Drake Hallock, Hill and Moffett.

The proceedings of last meeting were read and approved.

PETITIONS, COMMUNICATIONS, ETC.

Messrs. W. H. Watkins, Joseph Gaston, A. E. Wait, T. J. Carter, J. M. Fryer, C. B. Upton, J. B. Harker, J. H. Egan, C P Ferry, J. B. Caldwell, C. A Dolph, D. C. Lewis, G. T. Myers, J. N. Dolph, Joseph Teal, W. E. Cooper, Arthur Fahie, James Terwilliger, W. H. Courtney, and about seventy-five others, petitioned that the pending ordinance providing for the improvement of South First street from the south line of Lincoln to the north line of Woods street, accompanying which was a statement from Messrs. R. S. Coombs and D. P. Trullinger, bridge builders, as follows. "A good and substantial bridge three hundred and thirty-five feet in length, sixty-six feet high in the highest place, which extreme height will extend for one hundred and twenty feet, thirty-six feet in width, with plank roadway twenty-four feet wide, with sidewalk six feet wide on either side of the roadway, can be built on First street, Portland, over Marquam's gulch, for $10 per lineal foot, amounting to $3,350

The whole matter was placed on file.

T. Rogers was granted permission to improve under the provisions of ordinance regulating the manner of street improvements.

Vigilance Hook and Ladder Company sent in a remonstrance against the action of the Chief Engineer taking their wood-shed and bell-tower and converting them into a corporation yard. The remonstrance was referred to Fire and Water Committee.

Proposition of Mr. C. M. Carter to sell the city forty acres of land at $32,000, for the purpose of a public park, promising to give $6,000 toward raising the railroad subsidy of $100,000, was laid on the table.

The communication of R. Weeks was referred to the Committee on Streets and Public Property.

The Committee on Fire and Water reported adversely to the proposition to erect a shed near Vigilance Hook and Ladder Company's house, and recommended that the Chief remove the Corporation Yard apparatus therefrom. The report was adopted.

The Committee on Fire and Water, to whom had been referred the matter of the application for the Eighth street improvement between Jefferson and Jackson streets, reported favorably thereon, but the report was re-committed to the same Committee, to ascertain the facts relative to the grade on Jackson street.

The Committee on Streets and Public Property, to whom had been referred the remonstrance of L. Goodman and others against the proposed extension of North Sixth street, reported favorably to the remonstrance, and recommending that the ordinance providing for the said extension be repealed. The report was adopted.

The Chief Engineer reported that the city prisoners had done 37 days' work, greasing hose cleaning cisterns, etc., also that he had abandoned the "corporation yard." The report was referred to the Committee on Fire and Water.

CLAIMS AGAINST THE CITY.

Warrants were ordered in payment of claims against the city as follows: E. Johnson, $97 49; Henry Failing, tools for city prisoners, $9 25; Henry L. Pittock, advertising, $35 06.

REPORTS, AND BUSINESS ON THE TABLE.

On motion of Mr. Hill, an ordinance providing for the improvement of South First street, from the south line of Lincoln street to the north line of Woods street, was taken from the table, and having been read a third time, it was placed immediately on its final passage. The final vote being taken, the ayes and nays were as follows:

Ayes—Besser, Congle, Drake, Hill, and Moffett—5.

Nays—Breck, Cree and Hallock—3.

The ordinance was declared passed.

ORDINANCES.

An ordinance repealing an ordinance providing for the extension of Sixth street, was passed.

Mr. Hallock also offered a resolution providing that notice be given of the proposed improvement of North Eighth street, from A street to G street, by grading the roadway, constructing walks, etc., wherever not already improved, which was passed.

Mr. Besser offered a resolution authorizing the surveys and profiles of Eighth street from Jefferson to Jackson, and Montgomery street from Eighth street to the east line of Twelfth, which was adopted.

Mr. Beck offered a resolution providing for the immediate removal of a barn from the street, at the intersection of Market and Water streets.

AMUSEMENTS.

ORO FINO THEATER.—This place of amusement was crowded again last night. The "French Spy," the play of the evening, was well mounted, and in the main its performance went off well. There were, however, a few waits and an occasional forgetfulness of lines, which marred the play somewhat. Miss Leo Hudson's personation of the dumb soldier was quite fair, but it was as the spy, in the Arab camp, that she really came out strong. In several of these scenes she received encores. The hand to hand contest between her and Mr. Bates, as Mohammed, was very handsomely done indeed, and was applauded long and loud. Miss Leo fences like a trooper. Her pantomime is graceful and almost as expressive as words. Upon the whole, though a few things were done but indifferently, the piece was very well performed. The evening closed with "Lend me Five Shillings," which as usual created great mirth. The same bill will be presented again to-night.

EAST PORTLAND PARK.—The work of fitting up at the Park, the appliances for Mr. Cook's great rope-walking feat is going forward rapidly. The grounds and platform will be placed in fine condition for a grand gala day. The forthcoming feat by Mr. Cook is attracting very general attention, and is discussed wherever two or three are gathered together. The indications are that if the day is pleasant there will be an immense crowd at the Park.

AN ADVANCE MOVEMENT.—The steamship Ajax left this port yesterday morning and went down the river to St. Helens. This was done, we presume, to take advantage of high water. At 4 o'clock P. M., the advertised hour for sailing, the Vancouver left here with passengers, mails and express for the Ajax.

It is rather melancholy to read that the South African "diamonds," after due scientific examination, turn out to be "lumps of translucent quartz." The best London lapidaries will have nothing to do with these worthless crystals. The mistake which it is averred has been made, is not an uncommon one, and very large stones are always of doubtful value.

OR
RHEUMATIC CURE.
HISTORY:
THIS REMEDY IS COMPOSED OF THE ACTIVE principle of the Unk Weed, Fog—Thaspium, Corlatum, Origanias, Lat—Indigenous to Oregon—Grows most abundantly and perfectly in Washington county.
PROPERTIES, &c.:
It contains an active volatile principle extracted by Ether, and a bitter Tonic principle.
Medical Properties and Uses:
It is the most Sure and Speedy Cure for Rheumatism, Rheumatic Gout and Rheumatic Pains of all kinds that has ever been introduced in the Materia Medica The Unk Weed Remedy as prepared by us, in consequence of the existing bitter principle, possesses the necessary virtue of being a POWERFUL TONIC!
Promoting the Appetite and Invigorating the whole Digestive Apparatus, thus building and strengthening the system, while at the same time the volatile principle, being absorbed in the blood, acts specifically on the Rheumatic Poison, removing it from the circulation and system.
There are few remedies known to the Medical profession, which will remove the Rheumatic poison from the blood, but whose action is so powerful in depressing the system of the already enfeebled Rheumatic patient, that their use has to be abandoned before specific effects are obtainable. Hence the want of success in treating this prevalent, and in consequence, heretofore incurable disease. Unlike these Medicines, a ready known, the
"Unk Weed Remedy"
Though producing as powerful and as active effects on the blood and system in removing the Rheumatic Poison, also proves a strong Tonic and recuperating element, which admits of its continued use even in the most delicate and debilitated Thus we have the combination for the first time of these two necessary elements in the one remedy, which accounts for its superior and never failing curative effects in
RHEUMATISM, RHEUMATIC GOUT
AND
RHEUMATIC PAINS
Of all kinds.
Put Up in 10 oz. Bottles at $1 50 per Bottle.

The Steamship "Alaska"

GOING TO CHINA VIA SUEZ CANAL

Saturday the 21st inst the steamship Alaska of the Pacific Mail Steamship line will proceed to demonstrate the practicability of a passage eastward to China via the Suez Canal The canal as is well known admits the passage with but little or no difficulty of vessels drawing twenty two feet of water The Alaska with her freight coal and water on board will draw but 20 feet She is a new ship being only two years old, is 385 feet long 48 feet beam 32 feet 8 inches hold with a cargo capacity of 2,000 tons a coal capacity of 1 00 tons fore and aft berths for 1 000 steerage passengers and cabin accommodations for 200 passengers Her cost was something over $1,000 000 and she has the reputation of being the most perfect model of marine architecture in existence She has been admirably fitted up with fire apparatus service pipes running her full length on both sides fore and aft these being supplied with separate donkey engines and boilers, and so arranged that sections of hose can be fitted on at intervals, at a moment's notice and the vessel deluged with water Ventilation a great desideratum in the comfort of passengers, has been carefully attended to, and her arrangements in this respect will make her conspicuous for coolness and comfort in tropical climes A large portion of the upper saloon has been removed, leaving a promenade deck which will be duly appreciated by her passengers during the long voyage before them A small saloon for ladies has been left amidships in which have been placed a piano library, and other comforts The upper deck runs flush fore and aft from one extreme end of the ship to the other She has a dining-saloon on deck capable of being thoroughly warmed by steam in cold or thrown open to every breeze in hot weather She has been thoroughly overhauled and put in excellent order and the design in sending her out is not so much to make any great speed, as to arrive in order so as to enter immediately on her trans-Pacific trips She is brig rigged and as she now sits in the water is one of the handsomest specimens of architecture that has ever left this port passage of the Alaska through the [illegible] and the canal should attract [illegible] every one whose business or [illegible] in that direction It is expected that she will arrive in sixty days, provided that nothing out of the ordinary current event occurs When she leaves New York she goes [illegible] Gibraltar, Marseilles and Malta [illegible] Port Said, at the entrance [illegible] through the canal to Suez, and [illegible] direct to Singapore and Hong Kong, which place her voyage will [illegible] At that point she will connect with regular line of steamers of the Company [illegible] between Shanghai, Yokohama [illegible] lying on or contiguous to the inland [illegible] and San Francisco She will be [illegible] by Captain Jefferson Maury, one of the [illegible] and most experienced officers in the company's employ, and there is no reason to [illegible] that her trip will not be a very successful one —N Y Times

The Horrors of War

GHOSTLY SCENES ON THE LOIRE—A YOUNG LADIES BOARDING SCHOOL FILLED WITH DEAD AND DYING—NOT A DROP OF WATER IN FOUR DAYS—COLD HUNGER, THIRST, WOUNDS—HECATOMBS OF DEAD EVERYWHERE

As the war is prolonged its horrors increase [illegible] under which we are shiv[illegible] country would alone involve a [illegible] misery In this re[illegible] such sufferings have [illegible] But such horrible scenes as were [illegible] by A Military [illegible] are not probable in such [illegible] army of the Loire has lately [illegible] and it is to be feared they have been many times multiplied within the course of the present month That army [illegible] a continuous 'strategic [illegible] of retreat, and fighting almost continuously [illegible] during some of the severest [illegible] the month Both armies have [illegible] the utmost, and have had no time [illegible] had them The horrible consequence has been that the wounded have practically been left as uncared for as the [illegible] have in some instances been [illegible] field of battle, though there [illegible] who have been left to perish [illegible] spot where they fell But [illegible] under shelter they have [illegible] together in uninhabited [illegible] sometimes lain there for [illegible] almost uncover[illegible] Beaugency described by [illegible] correspondent is one [illegible] because a more prolonged [illegible] of agony In a house which had once [illegible] de Jeunes Filles, "every room [illegible] to roof was covered with dead and starving men lying so thick it was impossible to move among them It was Saturday [illegible] had been there since the Wednesday and some since the Tuesday previous [illegible] that time, not one drop of water nor [illegible] of food, had passed their lips nor [illegible] any comforting hand approached them [illegible] broken legged sergeant had been able to [illegible] his own coat over his more severely wounded officer that was the utmost relief [illegible] them had obtained Moreover, the windows of the house were all broken, "and all those days and nights of almost Arctic cold they had been lying on the bare floor with their wounds undressed" All the agonies of wounds, of cold, of hunger and thirst [illegible] the horrors of death, were endured [illegible] together by these helpless sufferers The [illegible] in fact had been raging for three days [illegible] Beaugency, neither side gaining [illegible] undisturbed possession of the town as [illegible] to think of the wounded Even on [illegible] day German shells burst in hos[illegible] French volunteers were tending [illegible] wounded That night there was only one doctor in town capable of performing amputations and there were two hundred desperately wounded men in one building The dead lay thick among the dying, and as the former were dragged out their places were instantly filled Miserable objects, with broken limbs or faces half shot away, wandered about pointing to their dreadful wounds and making piteous signals for water which it was impossible for them to swallow Officers and men, veterans and boys, all lay in one undistinguishable mass of misery Every moan that the human voice can utter rose from that heap of agony This was on Thursday How many more scenes like the one we have just described might there have been in Beaugency on Saturday? And how many more in the numerous villages over which the storm of conflict has passed between Beaugency and Vendome?—New York Times, Dec 19th

CREATING RAIN—A Chicago civil engineer in a communication to the New York Times calls attention to the fact that heavy rains generally follow great battles This fact so generally observed during our late civil war has been especially prominent during the war now raging on the soil of France During a portion of the siege of Strasburg thunder storms occurred daily and the Rhine swelled beyond its banks, filling the cellars and driving the people from those places of refuge against the cannonade Again at Sedan the conflict which terminated in the surrender of McMahon and Napoleon was followed by an immense rain fall To these facts others might be gathered from cable telegrams announcing the successive operations of the hostile armies The Times correspondent attributes this rain fall to the concussion of the atmosphere and the meeting of opposite waves of sound, produced by the cannonading from different points and at different angles effecting a condensation of the aqueous vapors, aided perhaps by electrical action The Chicago Tribune, which has a scientific writer on its editorial staff indorses the views of the correspondent and expresses the opinion that the time will come when rains will be produced at pleasure by the use of gunpowder

GERMAN FEELING TOWARD AMERICA—The German Correspondent of Berlin in its issue of January 4th says

In expressing our earnest desire to perpetuate a cordial understanding between Germany and England, we might have said between Germany and the two great English speaking nations of the world A kindly feeling based on mutual respect, has long existed between Germany and America and it has been strengthened not a little by the tide of German immigration into that mighty country which has such a magnificent future before it The hearty good wishes, the prayers for our success and valuable material aid for our sick and wounded soldiers which have been sent us since the beginning of the war by German American citizens whose hearts still beat warmly for the old Fatherland, can never be forgotten in Germany

While up the river I heard the following story showing how an animal can rise when necessary superior to his nature

You see, said the narrator, the beaver took to the water and the dog was after him First the beaver was ahead and then the dog It was tuck and nip whether the dog would catch the beaver and nuck and tip whether the beaver would catch the dog Finally, the beaver got across the river, as the dog had almost caught him, when phit! up the beaver skud up a tree!

"But," said a bystander "beavers can't climb trees"

"A beaver can't climb a tree? By gosh he had to climb a tree the dog was a crowdin him so —Mark Twain

A Sabbath school teacher lately asked his class "What was made to give light to the world?" "Matches" was the immediate response of the youngest scholar
